

NANCY'S PANDA BEAR

Ralph P. Merrifield

C F C G

1. See that little panda he's as cute as can be
 2. Sitting on the shelf holding all my memories
 3. College years I'll keep him and so probably through my life

Brown and white all over sits in my
 (its) funny where he should be black he's I'll love that little panda till I menagerie

 colored brown you see become a wife I'm afraid that he'll go on the sacrificial day I am wed

Once every so often well I take my friend to bed cause when my boyfriends way from home I he's still my little panda and at It wait be little panda bear that will my bear night he keeps instead keeps me warm in bed.

 Panda → Pan - da

my love's gift to me Pan - da Pan - da keeps me company (9) AS we have children my husband and I we know what to do if our child

 3. Through

Starts to cry we show her the panda and say it's her friend he gives us a smile as he will right to the end Pan - da Pan - da my loves gift to me through the years he has dried my tears and kept me company - Pan - da

Pan - da Come from God above Panda - Pan - da rit.

Thank you for your love.

© Ralph P. Merrifield 1977