

The Lord Is Risen!

Sing and rejoice, the Lord is ris'n,
in three days He escaped His pris'n, death's sting is now no more.
Tell all the world: "The Lord is King", rejoice and sing, let anthems ring
and let your spirits soar.

By sinners He was crucified
and on a cruel cross He died,
His life for you and me.
Sing and rejoice, and praise His name,
He healed the sick and cured the lame,
and set our spirits free.

Our Lord will reign forevermore,
soon sin and death will be no more,
He'll set His people free.
Oh praise the day to earth He came,
pay homage to His Holy Name,
His home for you and me.
