

HAND THE RUDDER TO YOUR SAVIOUR

Descant on vs 2 & 4

2- Though life's storms may toss and with turn you, leave your rud - der in His
4- Life is of - ten fraught with dan - ger, but my big - gest trou - bles

1- Hand the rud - der to your Sa - viour, let Him steer your ship of 2- Though life's storms may toss and turn you, leave your rud - der in His
3- You must ful - ly trust, be - lieve Him, and not mind the high - est
4- Life is of - ten fraught with dan - ger, but my big - gest trou - bles

2- hands. He's the one Who keeps your a course true, pi - lots you till your ship
4- show, when I am to Him a stran - ger, thin - king that my course I

1- life. He will safe - ly find your har - bour, mind the rocks till you ar -
2- hands. He's the one Who keeps your course true, pi - lots you till your ship
3- waves. Let your sight of Him ne'er a grow dim, He the way to hea - ven
4- show, when I am to Him a stran - ger, thin - king that my course I

2- lands. Though on deck you fall and stum - ble, as your Pi - lot He will
4- know. There fore, Sa - viour, pi - lot my ship, lead me safe - ly to my

1- rive. Be your ship a small or large one, let Him steer your ship of
2- lands. Though on deck you fall and stum - ble, as your Pi - lot He will
3- braves. Yes, His course is al - ways fault - less and your ship will ne - ver
4- know. There - fore, Sa - viour, pi - lot my ship, lead me safe - ly to my

2- hear. When with pain and fear you trem - ble, know your Pi - lot He is near.
4- home. Then one day I'll al - ways wor - ship, Fa - ther, Son u - pon the throne.

1- life. He will see your vic - try is won, on the way a - void much strife.
2- hear. When with pain and fear you trem - ble, know your Pi - lot, He is near.
3- roam. E - ven through the dee - pest dark - ness, ma - ny He brought safe - ly home.
4- home. Then one day I'll al - ways wor - ship, Fa - ther, Son u - pon the throne.